IT'S ABOUT TIME

As we enter our senior year, we look back at the time we've spent together at Holbrook High School. The good times will always remain, while the not-so-good teach us and keep us in line.

At the Kennedy school, we learned our ABC's and 123's. At the South School, we refined our skills and prepared for high school. Now that's it's our senior year, we look back on our favorite experiences. Each year has a distinct memory to every one of us.

In 9th grade, we were introduced to the fun-loving Mrs. Bach, to some she was known as Ms. Skinner, trying to make us enjoy Lord of the Flies by William Golding, which was tragically impossible. Our country suffered greatly from the attacks on Sept. 11, and even at HHS, we felt a sense of unity and pride.

Our sophomore year was full of drama, hard times, and the dreaded MCAS. The dance team was founded, and Mr. Vartanian made science worth having. In the spring, we "followed the yellow brick road" with our performance of The Wizard of Oz, one of the most successful productions at HHS.

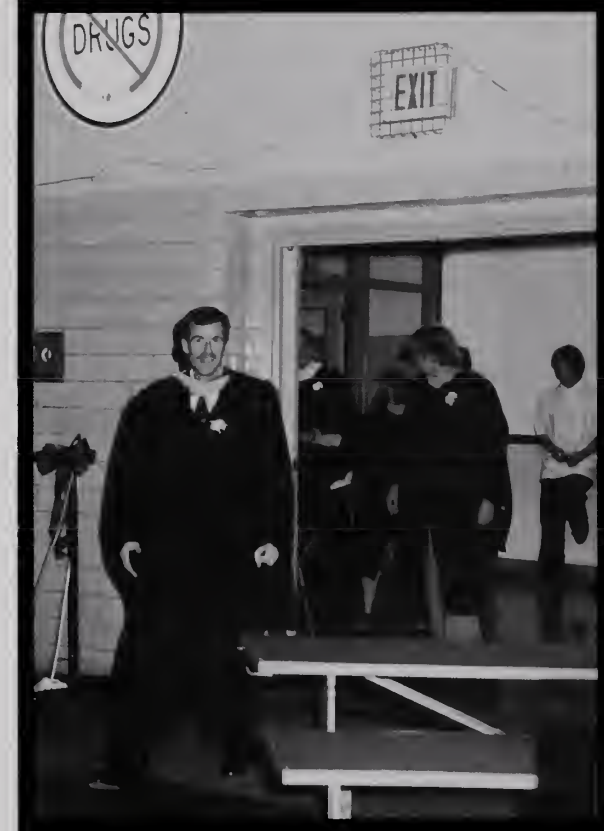

Junior year kicked off with a homecoming dance that no one could forget. The spring came into full bloom with the annual musical, Mame, and concluded with our junior prom. With the tulle skirts swooshing and the music pumping, our prom truly was Wonderful Tonight. Responsibility began to fall on the shoulders of our classmates when licenses were earned, and we looked forward to our senior year.

As in years past, this year was full of happy memories that we will cherish forever. The dances rocked, the musical showcased our dramatic and dancing talents, the prom was the place to be, and the sports teams excelled. But, this year is different. This year is our last year at HHS. Next year, the underclassmen will return, along with the teachers, but we won't be coming back.

In the fall, we will be freshmen in college, or serving in the military, or pursuing our own careers. The struggles we will encounter will be harder than that algebra problem that we just couldn't master. It won't matter if you were prom king, captain of the squad, star of all the musicals, or the biggest dork in school; all that will matter are the memories and good times we shared together. Cherish the time you have here, it goes by too fast.

Congratulations Class of 2005, we finally made it.

A Graduate's Farewell

Looking back on our senior year, we realize how quickly it went by. We will miss all of our high school activities, always remembering our last games, concerts, or meetings. Our accomplishments in and out of school will serve as the foundation for our lives to come, and we are well prepared. Our years in school together are coming o a close, but our shared exeriences connect us to one another in a unique way. Hopefully your memories are good ones, and good luck in all of your future endevors.

Thank you, Mr. Gonatis, Mr. Gonzales, and Mr. Power

Our class has been lucky enough to have had the opportunity to work with three different advisors throughout our years in high school. Mr. Power, Mr. Gonzales, and Mr. Goniatis all devoted their time and resources to us, and for that they deserve our thanks.

Mr. Power, as our advisor for the first three years, you led us through our first events as a class all the way to Prom. You were a unique advisor, with your deluxe tickets and taking us to Santarpio's for pizza, but we loved every minute of it. It was amazing how much fun we could have while getting so much work done at the same time. You have done so much for all of us, and you are already deeply missed.

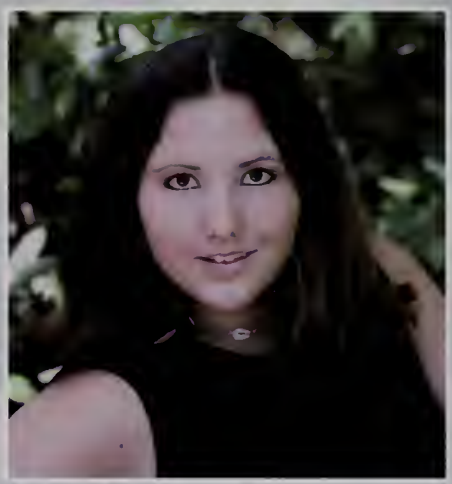

For our senior year we could think of no better advisors to have than Mr. Gonzales and Mr. Goniatis. You were placed in a difficult situation and thrived, helping us to keep focused and work toward our goals. From football concessions to planning for graduation you both were always there for us, and we thank you for that.

As our junior year comes to an end, we look back on what we have accomplished this past year. This year, our class banner won at Homecomming for the second year in a row! We also organized several fundraisers which included selling pies and donuts, a basket raffle at the craft fair, and we held a concession stand at the basketball games. All of the fundraisers help contribute to our prom, which was held at Monponsett Inn in Halifax. Our prom was a great success and we all had a great time! The class of 2006 looks forward to our senior year and hopes to have as much success as we did this year.

From, Left: Clarissa Flanagan, Brittany McKeon, Katrina Kelman, and Kathryn Thomas.

As our Sophomore year comes to an end, we look back on what we have done. At the beginning of the year, we made our homecoming banner titled Best of 7 Class of 2007 in honor of the Red Sox finally winning the World Series. Around Christmas time we started the Giving Tree to collect hats and gloves for the less fortunate. Throughout the year we did fundraisers and helped at the craft fair to raise money for our class. Towards the end of the year we began looking for a place to have prom and getting ready for our Junior year. Thanks to our class advisor Ms. Moriarty we have had a great Sophomore year and are looking forward to the next two years of high school.

~ Seanie ~

A golfer, a landscaper, a brother, a friend.
I still can't reason why your journey had to end.
I try not to get angry each time I cry,
But I am always left to ask why.
God took you away; it doesn't seem fair,
But in my mind, you will always be here.
You affected my life in such a positive way,
My life is brightened by your memory
each and every day,
You were too young to die,
and we were too innocent to feel that pain.
Only heaven benefits,
because an angel it has now gained.
Although we can't continue life's journey together,
You will remain in our hearts forever and ever.

School Spirit!

Let's Hear It for School Spirit!

At Holbrook High the students and faculty show spirit in various ways, by attending sport events, pep rallies, dances, and participating in the spirit weeks. These events give the opportunity for everyone to show their Bulldog Pride!

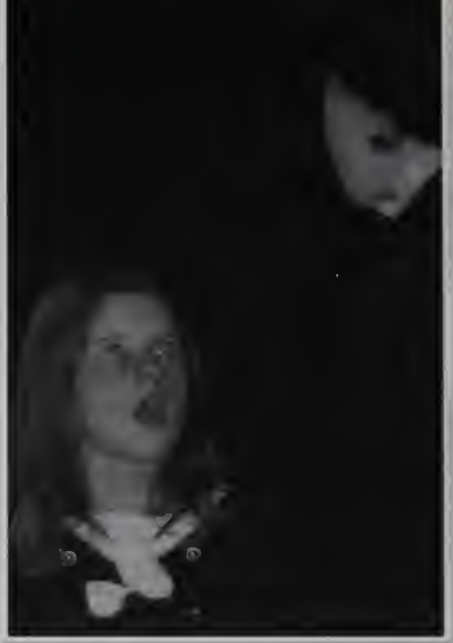

Secret Garden

Classic Story Comes Alive at Holbrook High

The dedicated cast of this year's play made The Secret Garden one of the more serious drama productions of the year. With Nathan Fogg starting out this year as a new director, many risky changes were made. The cast was made up of 10 people and only a few crew members found themselves backstage during the production. Due to the experience they had in Secret Garden, every cast member also participated in the musical of the year.

Midnight Masquerade

APRIL 8, 2005 DALTON CLUB

It has become a tradition for Northcrest's annual Semi-Formal Dance to be postponed. This year's finally took place on Friday, April 8th from 7-11 p.m. at the Dalton Club. The theme was a Midnight Masquerade and it was filled with students from various grades dancing the night away. At the end of the dance everyone left with exhausted faces but also with looks of pure enjoyment.

CABARET

PERFORMS PERFORMS PERFORMS PERFORMS

"Cabaret 2005" took place on Friday Feb. 4th in the high school auditorium. This year's show was amazing! The hosts were the fabulous Brian Kenerson and the mesmerizing Emily Jones. After weeks of preparation and a delay because of snow, the singers, dancers, and bands did a wonderful job. The show turned out to be a great success thanks to the assistance of the music parents and Mr. Thomas. All of the performers were pleased with the evening. All those involved cannot wait until next year's performance.

ACT I

1.)"I'm Not That Girl"-Michaela Fabrizio
2.)"Mamma Mia"-danced by Stephanie Cummings
3.)"Somewhere Along the Way"-Emily Jones
4.) The No-Name Band
5.)"Over-protected"-danced by Felicia Anderson
6.)"Across the Universe"-Danielle Morgan and Kelyne Rhodehammel
7.)"People"-Brian Kenerson
8.)"Big Spender"-Lauren Austin
9.)"Blackbird"-Timmy Gammon
10.)"I Will Be"-Laura Shea

ACT II

1.) BorgeauLee Experience
2.)"Scarborough Fair"-Emily and Cat Jones
3.)"All That Jazz"-Crystal Roach
4.)"1, 2 Step", "Let Me Love You", "Disco Inferno", "Bring 'Em Out"-danced by The Xclusive Ladies
5.)"For Good"-Michaela and Stephanie Frabrizio
6.) Nameless Wonders Band
7.)"Love Will Keep Us Together"-Rachel Gammon
8.)All Systems Go

Top to bottom:The Xclusive Ladies show their stuff in a group shot after keeping the crowd in awe with their hip-hop dance moves. The two smashing bands pose on stage after impressing us with their musical talent. Crystal Roach plays it up for the camera after singing "All that Jazz". Danielle Morgan and Kelyne Rhodehammel didn't have to travel "Across the Universe" to wow us with a guitar and vocal preformance. The sisters Emily and Cat Jones dazzled the audience with a performance of "Scarborough Fair".

A look at the season

Though the football team ended the season with fewer wins than they had hoped for, they are very proud of what they accomplished. The dogs started off well with a win over Trinity Catholic, but from then on wins were hard to come by. As the season went on the extremely dedicated core of players that kept fighting through the tough times. Then the Bulldogs defeated West Bridgewater, a team they love to beat. In the end, despite a diappointing record, the new freshman team players bring high hopes for the future.

Varsity Football Cheerleading

Football cheerleading season was a challenge. Having practices three times a week really kept the girls in shape. Although the team wasn't allowed to go to away games, when the home games came around, the fans were filled with spirit. On Friday, October 22, the school held an amazing pep-rally. The cheerleaders performed their half-time rountine, and stunned all of the students at Holbrook High School. The Coach, Ms. MaCauley was very supportive and proud of how the team came together for such events.

Seniors on the squad, top to bottom: Lana McCloy, Kathleen Crockett, Sandi Bell, Stephanie George, Caroline Galotti, Porsche Suttles, Brittany Burns.

Middle: Kathleen Crockett starts the cheer before the rountine at the pep-rally. The girls had much fun and did a great job.

Bottom: Ms. MaCauley and all the girls get together to strike a pose just for fun.

Lisa Lapanus goes up, light as a feather, in a mount before a game.

Ms. Macauley was a great coach and we hope to have her remain our coach for the following years.

Volleyball

A look at the season

The 2004 Holbrook Varsity Volleyball team finished their season with an incredible 10-2 record. Throughout the season, the team worked hard to dominate over their opponents. With all of their hard work and dedication, the girls managed to qualify themselves for the tournament. They played in the Quarter-Finals with home court advantage. Through the advice of Coach Caitlin Powers, the girls dominated the net this year. With their spikes and blocks, the girls were a team to watch out for. At the end of the season, senior captain Lauren Austin, sophomore captain Kristina Prusik, and freshman Kristen Haley were named Mayflower League All-Stars. Besides this amazing award,Lauren Austin also received the Enterprise All-Scholastic award. Coach Vinny Hayward knows the loss of his five seniors will be hard to recover from but he looks forward to next year's team.

Varsity takes a trip to the quarter-finals in the tournament!

Growing Pains

The boys' varsity soccer team battled diversity and inexperience to have a successful season, despite their record of 2-10-2. There were doubts of whether they would be able to field a team at the beginning of the year. These doubts were erased when they did, indeed, field a team.

The Bulldogs suffered early on. The boys did not hold their first practice until weeks after the other teams had already begun their own. Injuries plagued the young team early on as well Brandon Millane suffered a season-ending ankle injury during the first game, and Pat Hogan, Paul Crowley, and Sean Scanlan were restricted in playing time early in the year due to leg injuries. Sam Sterling was forced out of the net and on to defense after a hand injury.

The boys would adapt to and battle through changes throughout the year. Several underclassmen were called upon to play big roles this year for the Bulldogs. These courageous young players answered the call. Freshman Brendan Quireyns spent the majority of the year in net and helped keep the Bulldogs in many games. 8th graders Paul Crowley and Spencer Burns played solid defense all year and Andrew Grant was one of the leading scorers for the boys. Other 8th graders John West, Casey Supernant, and Tyler Mumme played solid two-way soccer on midfield. Coach Ben Janulewicz remarked, "These kids played with character and integrity all year and showed their skills and perseverance throughout."

The Bulldogs will be losing two seniors next year, Patrick Hogan and Chiedozie Uwandu. Their young core of players will be returning, along with a handful of veterans. The team will look to their upperclassmen next year to lead them to victory.

Clockwise from above: Freshman Goalkeeper Brendan Quireyns remains focused on the game. The Bulldogs huddle together as they prepare to begin their final game of the season against West Bridgewater. Junior Sean Scanlan prepares to take a corner kick

"The players made sustained progress and I couldn't ask for more."

LADY HOOPSTERS

Clockwise starting with top right: Brittney Erskine perfects her for during the pre-game warm up.Kristina Lowe drives to the basket while dishing to a teamate. Jenna Mumme drives part her defenderwhile heading for the hoop for two.

After losing 5 seniors last year, the girls' basketball team had their work cut out for them this year. Kristina Lowe had some big shoes to fill as the only senior.

Because of the team's past success, the schedule for the Lady Hoopsters was much more difficult this year. Due to the excellent play of center Lowe and junior guards Kelsey Boothby and Jenna Mumme, the team was able to finish 2nd in the Mayflower League and qualify for the state tournament.

The high point of the season was surely the overtime win at Chatham when Mumme nailed a three-pointer with no time left on the clock. Captains Lowe and Boothby played superbly against Ursuline in the first-round of the tournament. Although the Bulldogs were eliminated in this contest, they have reason to be proud because this loss was to the eventual state champs.

Also important to the season's success, was the play of junior Erica Erskine who really came alive agains rival Blue Hills and the dazzling outside shooting of 8th-grader Moe Lynch who took it to Norfolk Aggie. Success this season was truly a team effort .

Panthers Hockey

The Panthers wrap up their pregame routine.

The Avon/Holbrook hockey team's season did not live up to the expectations of either the coaches or players. The Panthers started off very strong, earning a tie in a physical game against Middleboro and wins against Abington/East Bridgewater and Cape Cod Tech. The departure of their 2 star seniors of last year seemed to have no effect on the Panthers. This would all change.

The Panthers went on a 6 game losing streak. Most of the losses were close games that were lost in the third period. The Panthers became demoralized and their lack of a true leader began to show. The coaches tried different strategies and jumbled up the line pairs to try to spark an almost lifeless offense. Nothing seemed to work.

The last games of the season give hope for the future of the program. Bob Stevens will be the only senior leaving and it appears as most 8th graders will not leave for other schools. With the same core of players, and a strong finish to the season, the Panthers should have a very successful season next year.

The coaches tried different strategies and jumbled up the line pairs to try to spark an almost lifeless offense. Nothing seemed to work.

The last games of the season give hope for the future of the program. Bob Stevens will be the only senior leaving and it appears as most 8th graders will not leave for other schools. With the same core of players, and a strong finish to the season, the Panthers should have a very successful season next year.

Wrestling

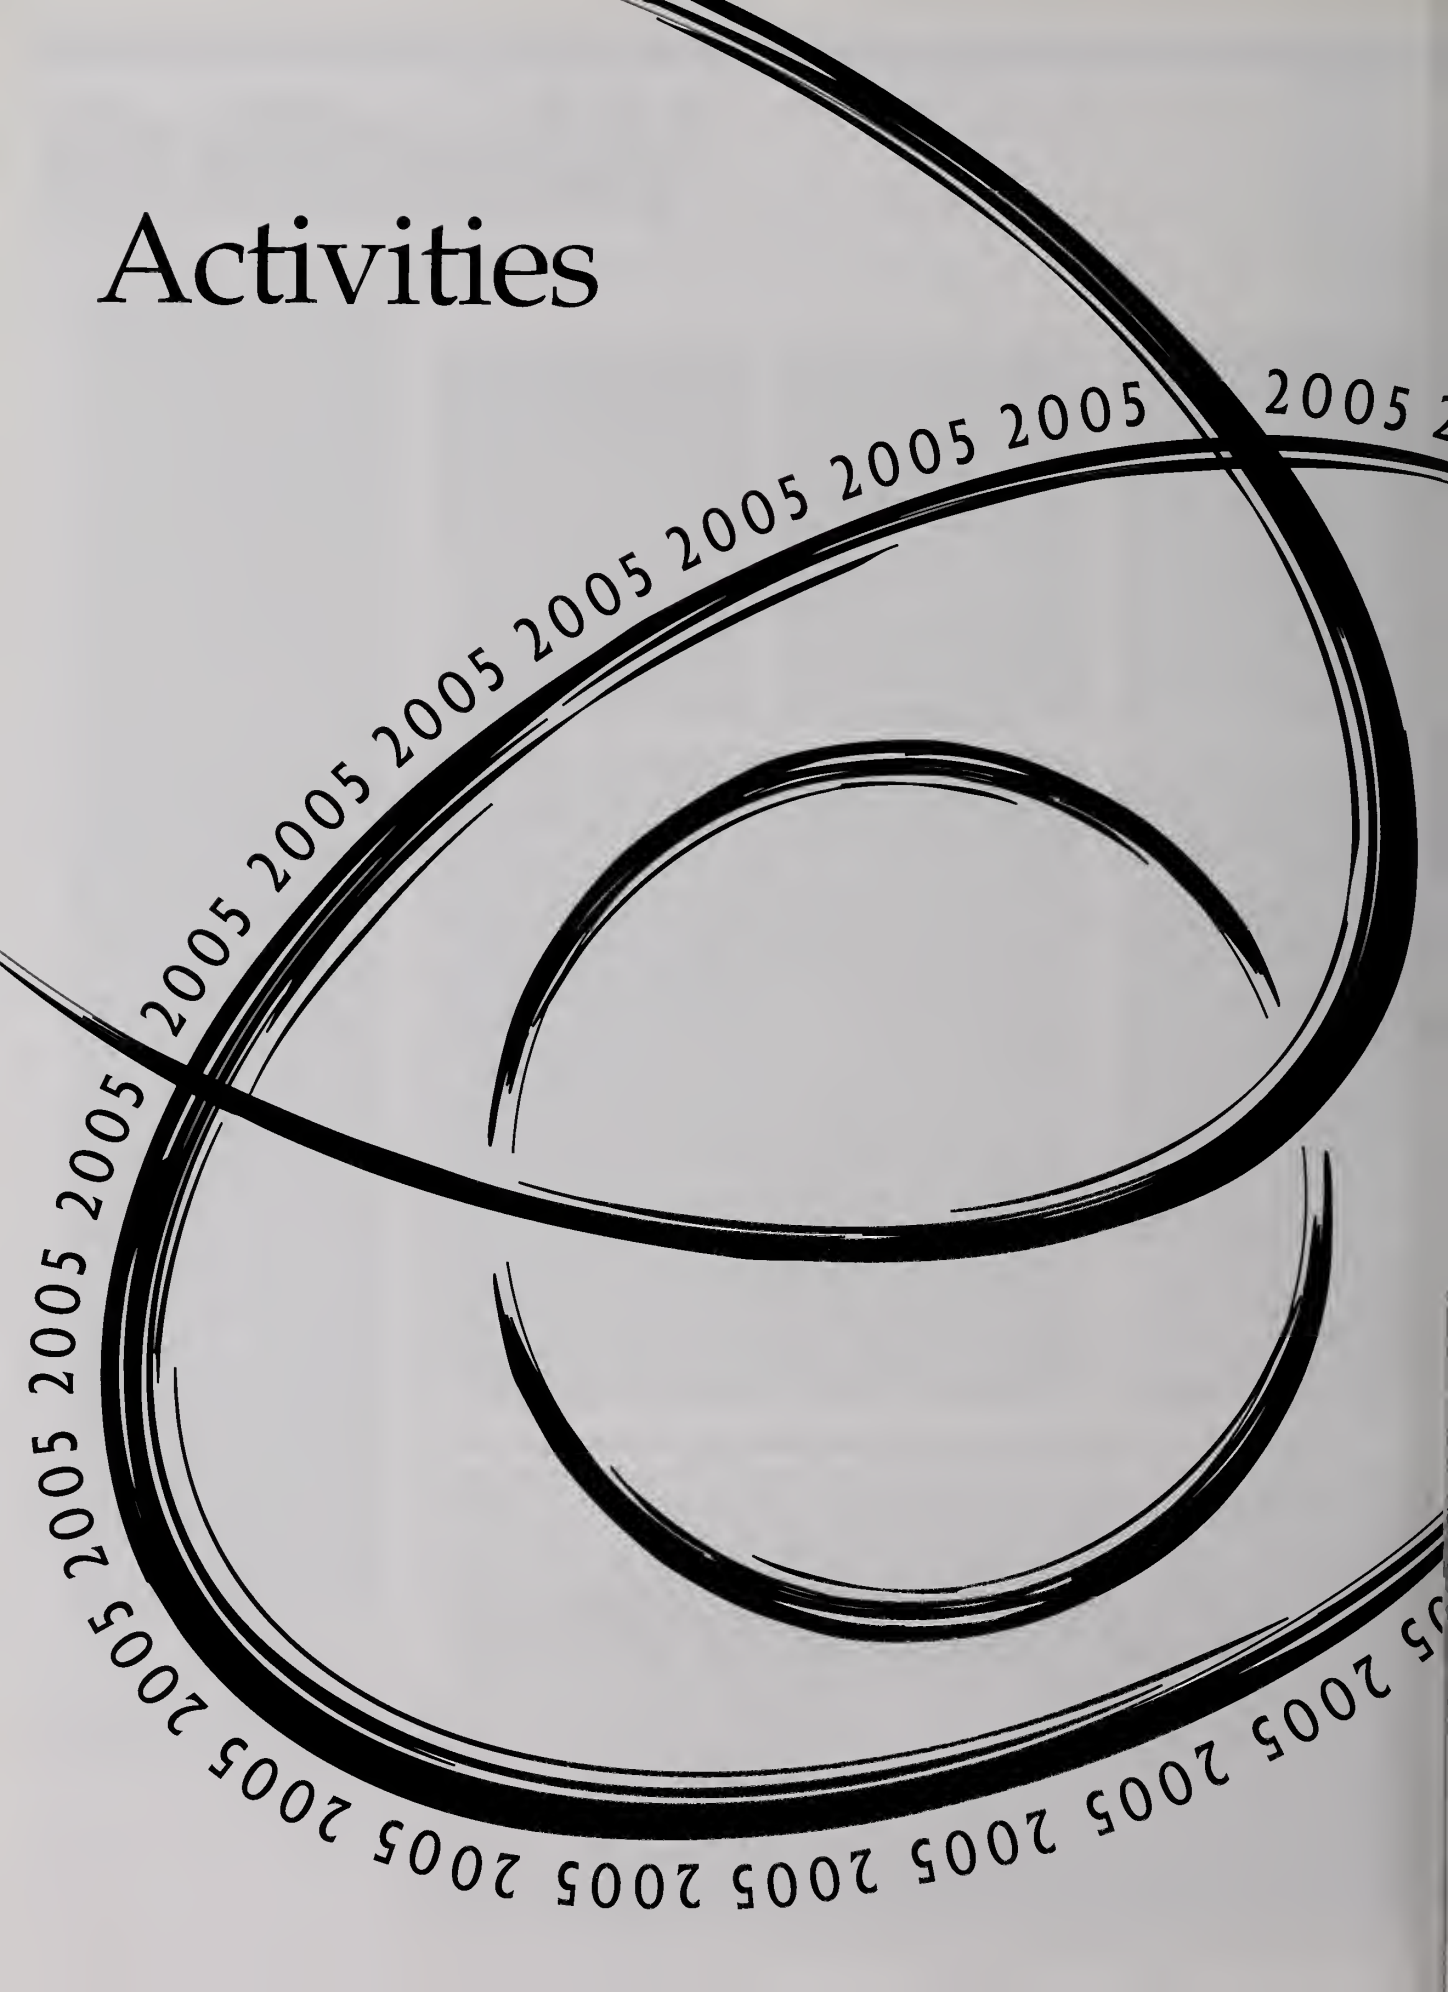

The Holbrook High Wrestling team got off to a steady start this season with second-year coach Kevin Coffee. The coach, along with the two new captains, senior Paul Kirby and junior Tim Hartigan, led the fifteen members to a great season. The hard work and effort the team put forth at practice everyday afterschool paid off during the winning meets against various schools.

In a successful effort to raise money, the team held an RWF Wrestling Show at the Dalton Club in Holbrook. The team is saving money for next season to buy new mats.

Project Strive

Project Strive:

Moving Towards Independence

Project strive is a special education program at Holbrook JR/SR High School that helps build independent living skills. When learning math skills and reading skills, Project Strive students learn with a real life approach. This includes real situations and hands on activities. The main focus of the program is to teach the students daily living skills in all content areas. Students in Project Strive learn how to operate simple office equipment, distribute school materials, prepare foods, prepare holiday crafts for sale and they also learn how to follow directions. Doing these tasks help the students learn how to work together and help others. There are two staff members in the Project Strive program - one special educator and a paraprofessional.

Charms

The CHARMS program is a new collaborative program here at Holbrook Jr/Sr High School that caters to kids with mental and physical disabilities such as autism, Down Syndrom, cognitive impairment, Candavan's and other disabilities. Students fron Canton, Holbrook, Avon, Milton and Sharon come together and learn fundamental skills to help them find success in their adult lives. The students range in age from 16 to 21 years old. Once a student reaches 22 years of age they must enroll into an alternative program.There are 12 students in the CHARMS program this year, 9 staff members, and 4 therapists. The CHARMS grograms goal is to offer academic growth to their students. To do this, the program teaches the students various academic skills in fields such as English, Math, Science, and Computers. In addition to developing academic skills, the CHARMS students also aquire life skills such as health , hygiene and physical fitness. The CHARMS program gives these kids a chance to help themselves learn basic skills that will help them with their lives in the future.

These are the Moments

Junior-Senior Prom 2005

The 2005 Prom was so amazing! Ms. Maloney and Mrs. Fontecchio worked so hard to make it affordable and fun for everyone. They decorations in the Gymnasium were breath-taking and everyone was anxious to begin the Grand March. When the march began, couples would enter the Gym from the back doors and stop under a beautiful archway. Then the couples gracefully walked around the room in front of family, friends, teachers, and the Prom Court judges.

After the Grand March, the juniors and their dates entered their limos and were drivesn to the Monponsett Inn in Halifax. The class officers' decorations made the night unforgettable. It was like being in a dream world. Everywhere you looked, you saw sparkles, glitter, and the twirling of everyones' dresses. Juniors and seniors danced the night away with good music, good friends, and great memories. Special thanks to Mrs. Mummes and Mrs. Boothby for all of their help decorating.

Graduating Class of 2005

You made it!

On June 4, 2005 as the graduating class entered the gymnasium to "Pomp and Circumstance", the joy and excitment filled the air. Each graduate waited with anitcipation, watching their classmates receive diplomas and turn their tassels to the opposite side. They then realized that their childhood life had come to an end; life now must continue as an adult. After the graduates received their diplomas they gathered together to say their last goodbyes before they journied on toward their futures.

You have the incredible conviction and determination for fairness and right-
You are sure to succeed because you're so bright.
You have always known right from wrong-
I've never met anyone so focued, so strong
Honey, you are a crusader through and through
Whatever you cause - we'll stand with you.
I'll desperately miss our kitchen conversations-agreeing, disagreeing-sharing our opinions
Wherever you go; whatever you see, your inate, astute qualities will get you where you want to be.
To college-its time now for you to go
How much I love you and will miss you, you'll never know
Congratulations honey - you will always make us proud
Love,
Mom, Dad, Drew, Jen and "Fred"

You are the funniest, craziest, most determined person I know. You will always be my little sister but more importantly you will always be my best friend. I am so proud of everything that you have done and the person you have become. I don't know what I would do without you. No matter how far apart we are, I will be by your side when you need me. Follow your dreams, follow your heart, you can do anything. I love you so much
Love,
Jen

Dearest Kathleen,

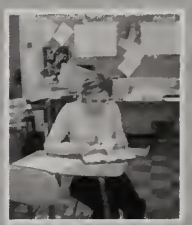

I am so proud of you. Thank you for all your hard work and perserverance. You are a great role model. I know you'll have a bright future. I wish you happiness and health always sweetheart. I love you very much. Proud hugs and kisses from Mom, Juan, Kelly, Charlie, Jeremy, Leslie, Heather, Sheila, Keith, Franco. Always land on your feet....Percy and Taz
